

I prefer the FCC does not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. It is so nice answering the phone again, knowing the call is not another telemarketer.